Mercruiser 5.0 temperature sensor location-gctid555707. After turning the key, the needle will jump to 100 and stays there even I run the boat and engine's temp is around 150 (checked with thermometer gun). I've located the buzzer sensor (on thermostat housing) but I can't find the temperature sensor location! Any help will be appreciated!!! Oh, the engine is Mercruiser 5L (8 cyl) year 1995.

Why is the temperature sensor on my 92 Mercruiser 4.3L located.... The water, heated by the engine running, is what opens and closes it. If it feels cool all of the time, you should replace the thermostat. It may not be closing at cooler temperatures as it should so the motor may run at the right operating temperature. If you bought the motor used, someone may have removed it! Either way, I would change it. Joe.
