There is a linde machine for sale locally, seems in pretty good shape, I haven't looked at it yet but plan on going this week. As i understand it Linde is basically ESAB now correct? Would this be a good buy? The guy is only asking 650 for it. I'm not sure whats included other than a bottle of gas and torch. From the pics it looks like it has a built in water cooler and a 110v duplex outlet.

I don't have a manual, but I know those are great machines. I'd say its about early 90s vintage and I believe those were made by Esab for L-tec. What questions do you have about the machine? Maybe I could help you. Did you get the torch, remote pedal, or water cooler for it? I have 3 different welding machine and don't have a manual for any.
